Discussion of possibility of teacher/staff appreciation after holiday break (muffins, coffee, etc.), Michelle suggests continental breakfast (light and easy); Sue mentions needing a date and amount of funds to put towards this (would like to run this past Sheila as well), Sue suggests either January 4th or 11th (a Friday)- all agree on the 4th but Sue will check with Amy Digby for date, setting it up around 7:45 a.m. that morning in the staff lounge; Jon asks how many members on the staff, Sue says around 80; everyone agrees on a budget of $400 max (coffee, tea, muffins, croissants, fruit salad, juice, water, plates, napkins, forks); we need to look into if they have a Keurig at the school (hot water for tea); Michelle offers to take this project on

-Michelle makes a motion for $400 for funds for mini-appreciation/welcome back continental breakfast for the Doyon staff, Jon seconds

-APPROVED-

Doyon Devours Books - some parents did not like it taking place over February vacation past years (low participation), maybe one week instead of two in March (National Literacy Week usually takes place first week of March), Jon suggests a Friday to Friday (so one weekend will be included); Sue mentions that funds have gone entirely to the library (maybe put some towards STEAM studio? Sue suggest discussing where funds will go during January's meeting); prizes last year were Henry Bear's Park gift cards (Jon picked them up), issue of same winners every year- consider changing the winners category to include wider variety of type of student, Jon suggests one class per grade as winner, no more individual winner (adds a new level of competitiveness and teamwork to encourage fellow classmates to participate) - everyone liked this idea a lot; Sue will look into using 99pledges.com.

Re Flatbread- Kerrin told Sue she's looking into, will follow up
